

downunderpix

You will encounter many beautiful species of marine life, including Turtles, Spanish Dancers, many colourful tropical fish and much more.

A spectacular feature of North Solitary Island is the extensive Clown Fish and Anemone beds which carpet the floors of many dive sites.

After diving enjoy the three beautiful beaches of Arrawarra, Mullawarra and Mullaway where you can stroll, swim, surf or just relax.

Location: Mullaway
Contact: info@downunderpix.com
Mobile: 0419 819 083

Dive the Solitary Islands

7th to 14th March 2015

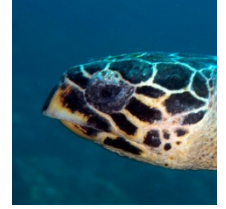

downunderpix

The dive sites:
Anemone Bay, The Steps, The Canyons, The Bubble Cave, Wright's Reef, Manta Reef, The Shark Gutters, The Gap, Fish Soup, Surgeons Reef.

The perfect getaway:
Mullaway is a serene and tranquil coastal village with pristine treelined beaches, national parks and rainforests within a short distance.

Sea turtles:
Green sea turtles are most commonly seen within the Solitary Islands Marine Park.

Location: Mullaway
Contact: info@downunderpix.com
Mobile: 0419 819 083

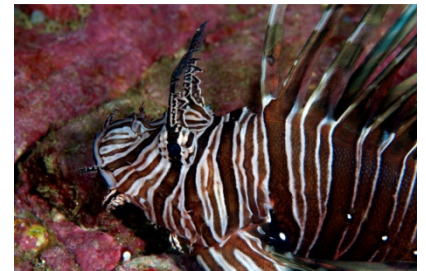

Dive the Solitary Islands 7th to 14th March 2015

Paul Macdonald of downunderpix, will be leading an underwater photography focused dive trip to the beautiful Solitary Islands on the 7th to 14th of March 2015. The cost of $990 per person includes 7 nights at Mullaway, 12 dives with Dive Quest, tanks/weights/airfills, return airport transfers (if required). Use your frequent flyers, arrange your own flights or take your car. Indicative return airfare costs – Qantas $524 or Virgin Blue $328 (per internet search 4/8/14). The cost for non diving partners is $250.

Expect to see Manta Rays, Spotted Eagle Rays and Grey Nurse Sharks. A spectacular feature of North Solitary Island is it's extensive Clown Fish and Anemone beds which carpet the floors of many dive sites. You will also have the pleasure of encountering many beautiful species of marine life, including Turtles, Spanish Dancers, many colourful tropical fish and much more.

dive sites located around the Northern Solitaries provide endless opportunities to encounter new and exciting marine creatures on every dive making the holiday a memorable experience.

To book in email:
info@downunderpix.com
For more information call Paul:
0419 819 083

It will be a fun time full of diving and underwater photography at the Solitary Islands located north of Coffs Harbour. For those who have not dived here before, you will be pleasantly surprised by the diversity of diving around the five islands located within the Solitary Islands Marine Park. The Northern Solitary Islands in particular boast excellent subtropical diving, with approximately 80 different types of hard corals, soft corals and abundant tropical and pelagic fish life.

These islands provide fantastic opportunities for underwater photographers and divers to all levels of certification will find the diversity of marine and bottom life unique and astounding. The many

